CTW courses offered this Academic Year and enrollment numbers for each:

I. For each CTW course listed above, describe briefly the methods used to assess the Critical Thinking Through Writing (CTW) component.

II. For each CTW course listed above, describe how data on CTW student learning outcomes was collected.

III. For each CTW course listed above, present the data collected to document the CTW Student Learning Outcomes.

IV. Describe any broader changes that occurred due to implementation of the CTW courses into the degree program. (For example, were modifications made to degree program requirements, to course content, to student learning outcomes in the degree, to the sequencing of courses.)

V. Analyze and evaluate the data collected on CTW Learning Outcomes, based upon standards and criteria set by your department. (Methods to evaluate this performance data may include: comparisons to pre-set benchmarks; comparisons over time; comparisons to regional or national norms; comparisons to peer institutions; comparisons to other majors within the college or university.)

VI. Based upon the evaluation of CTW learning outcomes, describe any changes that should be made to the course to enhance student learning in the future. In other words, what changes are needed in instruction, assignments, or curriculum to improve CTW student learning outcomes?

VII. Discuss any changes that should be made to future means of assessment of CTW student learning outcomes. In other words, how effective are current assessment methods at measuring CTW? Are additional measures or different measures needed?

VIII. Discuss any broader changes that are planned for the future to the degree major (modifications in program requirements, course content, student learning outcomes, sequencing of courses, etc) as a result of assessment of CTW.

IX. Discuss how sufficient/insufficient resources were to implement the CTW graduation requirement in your degree major.

X. Discuss how sufficient/insufficient resources currently are to sustain the CTW graduation requirement in your degree major.

XI. Discuss the level of involvement of faculty, staff and students in the CTW Initiative (What role did each play (if any) in review of CTW student learning outcomes and discussion of the findings of assessment).
