

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY -- Anticipated position as Assistant Professor of Music Education-String Emphasis pending budgetary approval. Start: August 15, 2011. Duties include undergraduate and graduate string education courses; additional graduate courses in areas of interest; supervision of student teachers; student advisement. Maintain active record of scholarship and professional development, supervise graduate research, and serve as Coordinator of Student Teaching in Music. Doctorate required. Candidates must have an established record of professional accomplishments and successful experience as a music educator in public schools and/or college. Salary: Commensurate with qualifications and experience. Application deadline: November 15, 2010 or until filled. Send letter of application, vita, a DVD containing excerpts of ensemble rehearsals (demonstrating instruction and conducting), and 3 current letters of recommendation to: Julinda Norton, c/o Music Education Search Committee, Georgia State University, School of Music, P.O. Box 4097, Atlanta, GA 30302-4097. Offer of employment contingent upon funding and background verification. Georgia State University is an EEO/AA employer.