

President's Awards for Community Service and Social Action

President Mark P. Becker and the Georgia State University Office of Civic Engagement is pleased to recognize faculty and staff who have each made significant contributions to improving the quality of life and the well-being of society at the local, state and/or regional level. Having worked with citizens and community organizations the honorees will have extended and exchanged their unique knowledge by applying their talent and expertise to community issues. Please join us on Wednesday, April 8, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. in the Student University Center, Speakers Auditorium to honor the following Award Recipients.

Outstanding Community Impact Award-Student

Ashley Fennessey

Outstanding Campus Impact Award-Student Organization

Nursing Students at Georgia State

Outstanding Faculty or Staff Member Award

Pamela Willingham

Outstanding University Program Award

School of Social Work, MSW Community Project

Outstanding Community Partner Award

The Study Hall

Special Guest, Keynote Speaker will be Milton James Little, Jr. President of the United Way of Metropolitan Atlanta. Milton J. Little, Jr., became president of United Way of Metropolitan Atlanta in July 2007, after serving as president of United Way of Massachusetts Bay and Merrimack Valley. Before joining United Way, he served as interim president and CEO of the National Urban League in New York, where he launched innovative partnerships with the Department of Housing and Urban Development and the Labor and Commerce Departments.

For questions of more information on the 2009 President's Awards, please contact Kelli Vincent in the Office of Civic Engagement at: kellivincent@gsu.edu or 404/413-1552.

In Panther Pride,
Kelli Vincent
kellivincent@gsu.edu
Student Affairs Advisor
Office of Civic Engagement

Georgia State University
44 Courtland Street
Student Center, Suite 320
Atlanta, GA 30303-3083

404/ 413-1552
www.gsu.edu/service