Georgia State University | CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

2010 Community Service Awards

The Office of Civic Engagement honors student leaders and student organizations who have contributed to the university and the greater Atlanta community through community outreach and civic engagement. The Office of Civic Engagement will award two student organizations and one student leader at the Royal Flame Awards on Monday, April 19, 2010.
The three awards to be presented are:

Margaret Mead Award- Given to a student organization who has demonstrated leadership and commitment to serving the Georgia State and Atlanta community to bring about social change. "Never doubt that a small, group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has."

Collaboration Award- Given to a student organization who has developed partnerships with other groups and/or community organizations to better accomplish its service goals. "We all come into the world alone… we leave the same way… but in between we have a chance to connect and to help each other."

Martin Luther King, Jr. Award- Given to a student leader who has persisted in making a difference in the community through creative and courageous leadership. "And there comes a time when one must take a position that is neither safe, nor polite, nor popular; but one must take it because it is right."

Nomination applications are available in the Office of Civic Engagement. Nomination packets should be submitted to the Office of Civic Engagement by Friday, April 2, 2010 (5:15pm).
Contact the Office at 404-413-1550 or email alysiabrown@gsu.edu with any questions.

****

Nominator:_____
Nominator Phone :_____Email address: _____
Nominee:_____
Nominee Phone:_____Nominee Email:_____

Award Applying For: Select one
□ Margaret Mead Award □ Martin Luther King Jr. Award □ Collaboration Award

Please include the following information with your nomination packet:

- Please list campus and community outreach activities you or your organization has participated in for the 2009-2010 school year.
- Elaborate on any special/innovative projects that you have worked on during the year.
- In what ways have you collaborated with other groups or individuals while engaging in community services activities?
- For the Leadership Award, please describe the leadership qualities of your nominee and give examples of their style.
- Will you or a representative of your organization be attending the Student Activities Banquet on April 28th?
  yes _____ no_____
- All service hours must be logged in our Volunteer Solutions system. Go to www.gsu.edu/service and click on Volunteer Solutions to log hours.
- Please submit at least one letter from a community based organization served by the Nominee.

For additional information contact the Office of Civic Engagement
Student Center, Suite 320
www.gsu.edu/service